

Fourth Annual Conference, Department of Economics and Finance

Call for Papers

The Department of Economics and Finance is organizing its Fourth Annual Conference on Economics and Finance during 9-11 February, 2023 on the theme “Recent Developments in Economics and Finance”. We invite research papers under two separate tracks: Economics, and Finance. Papers must be unpublished. The presenting author of accepted papers will be provided limited travel support for to and fro travel through 3rd AC train fare by the shortest route. We will also provide free logistic support to the presenting author.

We have a best paper award of Rs.15,000/= in each track for papers submitted and presented by the PhD students only (an authentication letter from the supervisor needs to be submitted).

Each author can submit only one paper and in only one of the tracks.

Please use the links provided for each track to submit your research paper. Please submit only a pdf version of the paper.

You cannot edit your responses post submission.
