Dear Professor Goyal:

Congratulations, you, Dr. Poonam Goyal and Dr. Anil Rai have been selected to receive a 2010 IBM Scalable Innovation Faculty Award for $15,000USD. This award is highly competitive and recognizes the quality of your program and its importance to our industry.

On behalf of the IBM Corporation, I am pleased to enclose your award check for $15,000 USD and ask that it be deposited or cashed immediately upon receipt. Please note that the IBM Innovation Award is a gift in recognition of your achievement and not a contract for services. It will be processed as a donation to your university. Hence, we expect that no overhead will be charged against this award.

Again, I am delighted to provide you with this award, and I wish you much success in your endeavors.

Sincerely,
